

PREPARING YOUR BUSINESS FOR SENATE BILL 553

WORKPLACE VIOLENCE

Training and Preparedness Plan

Senate Bill SB) 553, includes new requirements for employers to prevent and respond to threats of violence in the workplace. This applies to all businesses that operate in California with ten or more employees per location. Employers in healthcare facilities and business with fewer than 10 employees are exempt.

BSS can help you comply with this law, avoid costly penalties, and mitigate the liability exposure created by this new mandate in the most efficient manner without compromising productivity.

Senate Bill Demands:

- Implementing specific written plans that address potential related risk in your workplace location. These plans must include employee participation.
- Offering and conducting employee training for handling and reporting workplace violence incidents.
- Employees must participate in the policies and procedures that will be included in the training.

Building Safety Solutions (BSS) can help you comply by:

- BSS offers custom Workplace Violence Preparedness Plans and training for your location.
- Documents training participation to demonstrate compliance with SB 553.
- Training is hosted on a cloud-based interactive system. It is convenient, efficient, and available 24/7 from any computer or mobile device.
